FACTUAL BASIS

_____Should this matter have gone to trial, the government would have proven, through the introduction of competent testimony and admissible, tangible exhibits, the following facts, beyond a reasonable doubt, to support the allegations in the indictment now pending against the defendant:

The Defendant, CARLA ANTONIA MURILLO REYES (hereinafter "MURILLO-REYES") has agreed to plead guilty to the one-count indictment that charges her with illegal entry in violation of Title 8, United States Code, Section 1325(a)(1).

A Special Agent with Immigration and Customs Enforcement would testify that on September 7, 2007 he found the defendant MURILLO-REYES in Jefferson Parish Prison within the Eastern District of Louisiana. Upon questioning the defendant, the ICE special agent determined that the defendant was a citizen of Honduras and was illegally in the United States by entering at a time and place other than as designated by immigration officials near Eagle Pass Texas on or about June 12, 2005. The agent confirmed this entry status through the ICE computer database and her own admission to being in the United States illegally. After determining the defendant was illegally in the country, the defendant was transferred into federal deportation custody on September 11, 2007.
